

Hiromichi Mizuno

Executive Managing Director and CIO
Government Pension Investment Fund

Mr. Hiromichi Mizuno joined Japan's Government Pension Investment Fund in 2015 and serves as the Executive Managing Director and Chief Investment Officer. Previously, he was a Partner at Collar Capital, a London based private-equity firm. Before joining Collar Capital, he held senior positions at Sumitomo Trust & Banking Co., Ltd.

He also currently serves as follows:

- Executive Adviser to the Japanese Cabinet on Healthcare and Medical Promotion Strategy, Japanese Government Strategic Funds Integrated Advisory Board Member.
- Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology – Japan National University Corporation Evaluation Committee member.
- Executive Advisor to the Hiroshima Innovation Platform.
- Guest Professor of Osaka University Graduate School of Medicine.
- Advisor of Kyoto University, Center of iPS stem cell Research and Applications.
- Guest Professor of Kindai University Global Economic Research Center.
- Senior Fellow of Tel Aviv University Graduate School of Management.

MBA from Northwestern University, Kellogg Graduate School of Management.